Our hopes and plans for the future originate

Cato has said that old age should be full of pleasant memories, but they may easily slip away unless we have a reminder. The days of this year have quickly slipped away, but they have left invaluable memories of the many hours which we have spent together.

In an effort to make this book a possession of value in the coming years, we strive to portray in pictures and words our cherishable memories and enjoyable experiences. Thus, as the mellowing influence of years steal over us, we shall be able to clearly recall the four years of happiness we have spent at Huntington High School.

We, the Modulus staff, publish this book not only to furnish entertainment now, but to aid recollections in the future.

Education bears the torch that enlightens the warld. It fires the imoginatian of man and feeds the flames af genius. It gives wings to dreoms and might to brown ond brain.

The school is its warkshop, for here ombitions ore stirred, ideals stimulated, and keys forged thot open the door to opportunity, the master of human destiny.

SCIENCE develops a better universe.

Keeping informed on the latest scientific discoveries is an everlasting joy to the young apprentices. With the new science program introduced this year, a special group of freshmen is permitted to take biology, so that in their sophomore and junior years they can take chemistry and physics. Then in their senior year they will have an opportunity to take an advanced course in either chemistry or biology.

Each class has its own laboratory and equipment with which to conduct special experiments.

In May the Biology Club, chemistry and physics classes, and other selected science students attended the National Science Fair at Indianapolis.

Physics students view a static generator in operation.

MATHEMATICS promotes logical thinking.

The mathematics department of Huntington High School has the well-earned reputation of being one of the finest in the state. Our students have the opportunity to increase their mathematical knowledge by studying courses ranging from general mathematics to college algebra.

One of the highlights of this year in math was the slide rule class, instructed by Mr. Lowell Buzzard and assisted by other members of the math and science departments. Over eighty students attended these half-hour classes at noon for several weeks to further their mathematical abilities.

College algebra students collaborate on a new assignment.

ENGLISH is a vital tool of Communication.

The English department eonsists of a well planned program of literaturc and grammar.

The first scmester the students have grammar; the second semester they have literature. In addition, voeabulary is stressed throughout the year. Juniors and seniors preparing for eollege are offered an English eollege preparatory course. This course, stressing the ability of eaeh student to express himself well in oral and written work, has proven quite helpful to those who have already entered eollege.

Although only three years of English are required for graduation, many students also ehoose to take the fourth year.

College prep English students read comprehensively.

Public speaking is an essential part of sophomore English.

Marian glumly views senior English reading requirements for one week.

French students use new language equipment.

Latin students proudly display a class project.

Foreign Languages foster understanding.

For several years foreign language has been an elective course in Huntington High School. Three languages were offered this year: Latin, German, and French.

These classes have interesting supplementary projects, which include writing letters in foreign languages, making clever valentines with original inscriptions, and spending many extra hours of preparation for participation in language contests.

The students who have the advantage of this fine language background will find themselves better prepared for life careers. They will be able to step into the adult world with confidence.

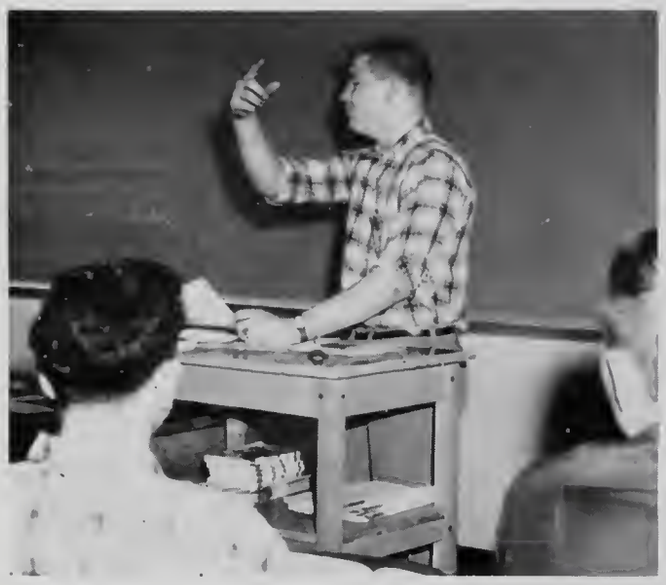
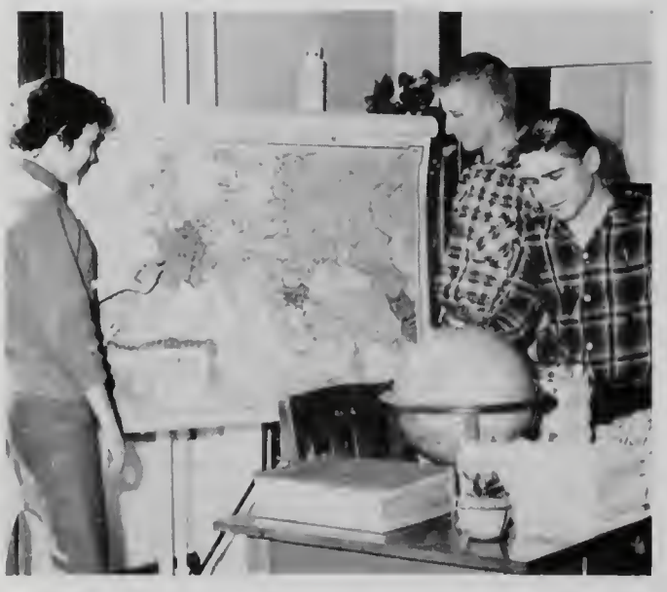
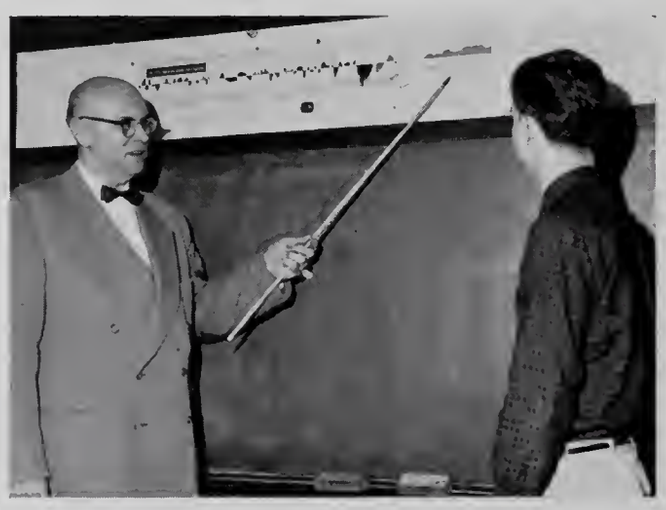
Dave quickly conjugates a French verb.

SOCIAL STUDIES creates good citizenship.





Huntington High School requires the study of United States history, sociology or economics, and civics in order to graduate. The only elective course in this department is world history. United States history is usually taken by juniors. Sociology, economics, and civics are taken principally by seniors. Complete voting procedure is learned in U. S. history and civics in election years. Many students interested in the field of business find economics practical.



Outside reports are an essential part of civics.

John illustrates a point in a history report.

World history students locate places of interest.

BUSINESS courses train commerical employees.

At Huntington High School students wishing to enter the field of business have the following courses which are elective: typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, general business, commereial law, and advanced shorthand and transcription. One of the additional projects of this department is doing production work for the school.

This year two I. B. M. electric typewriters and two comptometer dictating machines have been added to the business department's equipment.

Ann hurries to finish an income tax return for bookkeeping.

Art is offered as a four-year major. During the first two years, basic design and three dimensional work are taught. The last two years the projects of the students are on an individual basis. With the addition of a kiln this year, many students worked with ceramics.

ART utilizes latent aptitudes.

Art students pursue their own crafts.

Don and Dee find nature conducive to sketching.

MUSIC enriches our daily lives.

Anne proctices for o religious progrom.

Mr. Slater mokes a few suggestions to the choir.

The music department is divided into three sections: choir, organ, and band, which in turn are subdivided into special groups. The choir gives Christmas and spring concerts as well as other programs in neighboring towns and communities. The organ students provide music for religious programs and present special selections in their annual recital. This year Anne Goshorn gave her own organ concert.

The band marches during football season, plays at basketball games, and gives community concerts. This year Bill Warkentien was given the annual John Philip Sousa award, which is annually presented to the most outstanding senior band member.

The marching band performs at a half time show.

HOME ECONOMICS teaches domestic skills.

A young sewer strives for perfection.

In the home economies department, the girls are given the opportunity to learn the basic rules for food preparation, sewing, home management, and home nursing and child care. Since the courses are profitable for future homemakers, many girls choose to major in home economies. The girls are taught many skills useful in everyday life.

Home economics students learn homemaking short cuts.

Metal shop offers two new courses: printing and machine shop. These two courses are open to juniors and seniors.

Wood shop, too, has a new course in carpentry, which is offered the second semester to seniors who have had 3A mechanical drawing. In addition, wood shop provides woodwork and cabinet work.

Mechanical drawing, house planning, and machine drawing are also offered.

Print shop is a new course demanding practice and precision.

Building a staircase is a practical project in woodshop.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS instruct capable craftsmen.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION disciplines the body.

Bowling is one of the many sports offered in girls' physical education.

Anything Tarzan can do, Jim can do better?

The girls' physical education department offers a broad program of activities including swimming, bowling, tennis, archery, volleyball, basketball, square dancing, folk dancing, deck tennis, badminton, table tennis, tumbling, baseball, and many low organized games. Various tournaments are held throughout the year, creating much interest and excitement. Their popularity was well attested this year by the large turnouts for them.

The boys' physical education program is made up of calisthenics in the fall followed by a series of games which include basketball, volleyball, kickball, and softball. Also during each six weeks period the boys are required to hand in two written reports and to take an exam.

All of these varied activities help to build strong, healthy bodies and provide for wholesome recreation.

HONOR SOCIETIES stress worthwhile characteristics.

To become a member of the National Honor Society, a student must be in the upper twenty-five percent of his class. Membership is based on leadership, character, and scholarship. Only fifteen percent of the seniors and five percent of the juniors are chosen for membership. Selections are made on the basis of scholarship, teacher vote, and student vote. Seniors vote on senior selections and juniors vote on junior selections. Rating points are totaled. For the final results a committee composed of Mr. Johnson (chairman), the junior and senior sponsors, the Sunshine sponsor, the two deans, the Modulus sponsor, the coaches, the girls' athletic director, and the Masque and Gavel sponsor consider the results of the voting and give final approval.

On May 24 the Senior Honor Society held its annual breakfast at Lagro State Park for the Junior Honor Society.

KIWANIS and ROTARY recognize distinguished seniors.

Outstanding senior boys from Huntington High, Huntington Catholic, and Huntington College are recognized and honored each month by Rotary. They attend the weekly luncheons during the month for which each is chosen as a Junior Rotarian.

Kiwanis also honors senior students who have been scholastically outstanding in high school. These honor students, members of K. B. F. (Kiwanis Builds Forever), are the top five percent of the class. This year eight graduates received certificates from K. B. F. at the annual honorary luncheon.

SCHOLARSHIPS and AWARDS indicate achievements.

Scholarships are received annually by our outstanding students. These scholarships, on local, state, and national levels, are given by various organizations and colleges.

This year students received scholarships from the following institutions and organizations: DePauw University, the Navy, Miami (Ohio) University, the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, Purdue University, the Women's Auxiliary to the Huntington County Medical Society, and the National Honor Society.

Cliff Terry and John Ware were National Merit Scholarship finalists.

Senior scholarship winners were Ken Tewel, Ted Ehlers, Marcea Landis, Bill Seashols, Barbara Mueller, John Owen, and John Ware.

Finalists in state Latin, English, and chemistry contests were Anne Meier, Dave Lewis, and Jeff Tollinger, respectively.

State band contest finalists were Judy Rich, Gary Grimes, and Jerry Lewis.

Linda Catt, Anne Goshorn, and Ann Petrie placed high in the Tri-State commercial contest.

GUIDANCE enables students to systematize their studies.

All students in Huntington High School are grouped into home rooms by classes. Each home room teacher serves as a counselor to guide the students in his home room in planning their current schedule of classes and their four year schedule.

In addition to the home room teacher a class counselor is in charge of all the students in one class. The class guidance counselor calls each student in his group into the office for counseling at least once each semester and more often if necessary. During this counseling period the student's entire high school program is discussed and planned; in addition, unsatisfactory work in class, home problems, and other school problems are discussed. The class counselors were Mr. Diffenbaugh, freshman; Mrs. Hillegas, sophomores; Mr. Burke, juniors; and Mrs. Miller, seniors.

Attendance helpers were Connie Jones, Sue Smith, Jackie Nye, and Betty Hiatt.

SPORTS

Extracurricular sports are an important part of high school life. They afford recreation, and much more: companionship, the stimulus of individual competition, and the superb training that comes from being a contributing member of a team.

FOOTBALL TEAM earned sports laurels for H.H.S.

In 1959 Huntington's Vikings had their first undefeated and untied season in the history of the school. In the first game Huntington went to Marion and whipped the Giants, 24 to 0. Back at home, the Vikes had their only close game of the year, but finally defeated Wabash, 6 to 0. In their second CIC game the Vikes gained their third straight shutout, defeating Warsaw by the score of 46 to 0. Hartford City finally scored against the Vikes, but Huntington won, 46 to 7. Columbia City gave Huntington a good battle before succumbing, 18 to 6, at Columbia City. The Vikings rolled up their biggest point total in defeating Rochester, 50 to 12. In the CIC Game of the Year, the Vikings swamped favored Plymouth, 46 to 0. The Vikes then clinched the CIC championship for the second straight year by whipping Peru, 31 to 0. The Vikings took out some revenge on Fort Wayne South Side, 34 to 7, and in the season finale, the Vikings buried Indianapolis Manual by the score of 46 to 19. Ten victories, no defeats, and no ties was the record of the 1959 Huntington Vikings football team. Garl Wetters was CIC scoring champion, and quarterback Ken Tewal placed fifth in this category. Ken Tewel, John Owen, Garl Wetters, and Dennis Kramer were placed on the All-State Team, while Ken Crawford and John Thomas received honorable mention. The Vikes also dominated the All-CIC squad, placing Tewel, Wetters, Owen, and Kramer on the first team. The Vikings were the highest-scoring team in the state. In addition to individual standouts, the Vikes were an effective team throughout the season.

Coach Huntsman inspired victory.

Coach Jerry Huntsman in his first year at Huntington High School guided the Viking squad to its first perfect football season in history. Mr. Huntsman received his B.A. degree at Wabash College and his Masters from Purdue. He taught and coached football and track at Crawfordsville before coming to Huntington. Mr. Huntsman was very ably assisted in his duties by Mr. Oscar Naab, the B Team coach, and Mr. Paul Buzzard, the Freshman Team coach, as well as varsity assistants Bob Straight and Ivan "Kaiser" Wilhelm. Mr. Wilhelm was very active in his duties despite a neck injury he sustained before the beginning of the school year.

Huntington High School's freshman football team showed convincing power in going undefeated through a seven-game schedule. In their first game the Frosh defeated Peru, 26 to 6. They then whipped Hartford City, 25 to 0. They were held to a 7 to 7 tie by Marion, but bounced back to crush Manchester by the score of 40 to 0. Held to a 13 to 13 standoff by Columbia City, the Frosh returned to form by sqeezing past Wabash, 14 to 13. Their final game ended in a close victory over Warsaw, 21 to 18. All in all, the Frosh had a very encourageing season. Watch for them in the future!

The Huntington Scyldings showed basketball fans some fine playing in the 1959-60 season, which they finished with eleven victories and nine losses. They started out the season by whipping Peru, but lost to Alexandria and Fort Wayne South before hitting their stride again against Hartford City, Wabash, and Bluffton. Muncie Burris defeated the Scyldings by one point in a thriller. The Scyldings then won their own Holiday Tourney by crushing Warren 54-25 and dealing Township a 51-39 defeat. The Scyldings lost to Marion and Elwood before regaining form with victories over New Haven, Mississinewa, and Warsaw. Decatur, Plymouth, Columbia City, and Logansport sent the Scyldings on their longest loss string of the year, but the Scyldings finished with victories over Auburn and Rochester. All in all, this was a very satisfying season.

FROSH have strong finish.

The HHS Freshman Basketball Team was coached by Paul Buzzard. In the first game they lost to Peru. The Frosh defeated Bluffton, but sustained successive losses to Warsaw, Wabash, and Marion McCullough. They won their second victory of the year from Martin Boots of Marion, but were defeated by Logansport and Decatur. Then the Frosh started their late-season rush win-Then the Frosh started their late-season rush (winning seven of their last ten games) by whipping Mississinewa. After a loss to Columbia City they defeated the Martin Boots and Wabash squads. Marion McCullough once again defeated the Frosh, but Huntington rebounded to whip Huntington Catholic. After a loss to Andrews, the Freshmen closed out the season with victories over Warsaw, Mississinewa, and Manchester.

1960 TRACK SQUAD

TRACK SQUAD showed power.

Harry Poulson, Jeff Brown, Ken Tewel, Track Queen Janet Burkhart, Garl Wetters, and John Owen.

There were several outstanding individual performances and team efforts during the 1960 track season. Two Huntington High records were shattered while several others were approached. Coach Jerry Huntsman scheduled stiff competition for the Vikes, and they responded well. The Norse Thinlies captured the second annual Lime City Relays, placed fourth in the Conference Meet, and secured third place in the Sectional.

Norse senior Ken Tewel set a new mark by running the 880 in 2:00.4, breaking Ron Divel bliss' one year old record. By capturing his speciality in the Sectional and placing in the Regional, Tewel earned a berth at the State Meet. There he finished eighth in the fastest half mile ever run in Indiana. Husky senior Garl Wetters became the other new Viking record holder. Wetters put the shot 48 feet and 11 inches, bettering the former mark held by Blaine Robrock.

Other fine performances were turned in by seniors Ron Handwork, Jeff Brown, and Mel Watrous, and juniors Kent Paul, Roger Carroll, and Jon Mickley.

Handwork was a consistently good quartermiler and won the 440 at the Conference. Versatile Kent Paul was the Vikes' leading scorer.

Third Row: Don Burnworth, Wesley Sesline, Ken Troxell, Jim Schaefer, Jeff Tollinger, Bob Elsten, Bob Weinley, Jay Stout, and Jerome Drew.

BASEBALL TEAM held their own.

The 1960 season for Ivan "Kaiser" Wilhelm's baseball squad was a successful one. The Viking record of four victories and six losses is very deceptive. We must consider that the Vikings' opponents compete in a summer baseball league, while Norse baseball is limited to only five weeks in the spring.

The highlight of the 1960 season occurred when the Vikes knocked off powerful New Haven by a score of 6 to 3. Prior to this, perennially tough New Haven had been beaten only twice in the past three years.

Catcher Kenny "Clem" Crawford walked off with individual honors. In addition to winning the batting average trophy, "Clem" was elected most valuable player by his teammates. Shortstop Jim Stonebraker and switch-hitting center-fielder Glen "Booty" Fahrnow contributed timely hitting and solid defense. Power man of the Vikes was junior third sacker Kent Bragg. Pitching chores were handled by righthanders Bob Alspach and Frank Bowman.

Bob smacks a base hit.

Oh well, near misses don't count.

Ed Holmes, Pat Guthier, Steve Herendeen, Norm Stouder, Bob Feigel, and Don Dinius.

GOLF TEAM tried hard.

Dale Ware's youthful golf team gave the impression that there will be better things to come in future years. The Vikes, composed almost entirely of freshmen, captured only two of eleven matches, but turned in creditable performances against veteran-studded opposition.

Freshman Pat Guthier captured individual honors by winning a trophy awarded to the Huntington High School golfer with the lowest average for the year.

TENNIS TEAM placed high.

Coach Paul Buzzard's tennis team compiled a very satisfactory mark of five victories and three defeats in the 1960 season. They defeated Wabash (twice), Rochester (twice), and Manchester, losing to Bluffton (twice) and Peru. In the CIC championship meet the Vikings pulled something of an upset by finishing a strong third behind Peru and Muncie Burris. Sophomore Don Draper went all the way to the final singles match before losing. The Vikings' only losses via graduation were Bill Warkentien and Maurice Smith, both of whom did a big share in helping Huntington's young tennis team to its finest season thus far.

STUDENT COUNCIL governed wisely and efficiently.

Meeting twice monthly with Mr. Goshorn and Mr. Johnson, the Student Council continued to have a voice in school problems and activities.

Fifty representatives, two from each home room, were elected in the fall. The Student Council has functioned this year as a closely-knit group. After a spirited campaign last spring, the 1960 officers were elected by the student body.

This year's officers were Kenny Tewel, president; John Owen, vice-president; Judy Blackburn, secretary; and Marcea Landis, treasurer.

This year's activities included assisting in parent visitation, which was sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association; promoting a safety program; and supporting the Teen-Age Code compiled by the YMCA.

The Student Council Board, now in its second year, has been quite successful. Its purpose is to uphold the tradition and the rules of Huntington High School. These rules pertain to such things as conduct in the halls, in the auditorium, and on the school grounds. It is composed of ten members of the Student Council and the four Student Council officers. The merit system is used as the means of discipline.

The officers elected for this year were Ted Ehlers, chairman, and Marcea Landis, secretary.

The Masque and Gavel Club exists to promote speech and dramatic proficiency.

The club is open to all who are willing to maintain membership by earning points. Points are awarded through participation in contests, plays, religious programs, and giving announcements.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Delmar Weesner and his assistant, Mr. Norris Huston, the Huntington High School band finished another successful year. At the state contest the band won superior ratings in sight-reading and prepared music.

During football and basketball seasons the band and the high-stepping Vikettes added color and spirit to the games with their lilting music and precision marching. They also performed for Kiwanis, Rotary, and our own student body and faculty. On May 15 they presented a formal concert as a climax to their musical achievement.

We can certainly take pride in the mature musicianship and fine record of our band.

CHOIR strives for harmonical perfection.

Prospective choir members must participate in the training chorus directed by Mr. Cloyde Slater. Students must then pass solo tests in order to become members of the concert choir.

Similar tests are taken for membership in special groups such as Swing Choir, the girls' sextet, and the boys' quartet. The choir sang hymns, spirituals, and some light numbers; the Swing Choir, accompanied by percussion instruments and a dance group, sang popular tunes. The pieces sung by the sextet and quartet were both serious and gay in nature because of the many different types of audiences for which these groups performed.

The choir and its special groups sang in concerts for civic organizations and for student bodies and faculties of high schools and grade schools. During the year the choir members sold candy to pay for their newly acquired robes.

During the year the sextet, quartet, and soloists finished with superior ratings in district and state contests. Huntington High School can certainly be proud of the fine music presented by the choir.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY exemplified their motto, "Others".

The Sunshine Society, composed of all the girls in high school, has for its motto "Others." It endeavors to make the lives of others full of sunshine. The creed is "With love in my heart, forgetting self, and with charity for all, I will make the object of my life helpfulness and kindness to others. I shall try to fit myself to give intelligent service in making my community a safer and more beautiful place in which to live. Thus will my own life become rich and complete."

The Sunshine Society was composed of two committees which were M. M. S. and Gales. Each girl at the beginning of the year chose the committee or committees in which she would like to take part. The M. M. S. or Money Making Society was made up of only juniors and seniors. It sponsored the traditional Halloween and Sweetheart Dances and other activities throughout the year. The chairman of M. M. S., Nancy Altman, was assisted by her co-chairman, Patty Weaver. Mary June Law was chairman of the Gales.

The officers of Sunshine during 1959-60 were Connie Hart, president; Dianne Howell, vice-president; Mary June Law, treasurer; Diana Hammel, recording secretary; and Penny Glass, corresponding secretary. Guiding these able officers was Miss Alice Kline, sponsor.

This year a newly formed Camera Club met twice a month. It was sponsored by Mrs. Young and Mr. Day, and David Lewis was elected president.

Purposes of the club were to learn the techniques of using various kinds of cameras and the taking of pictures. There was usually a speaker to talk on some phase of photography. Films which instructed as well as entertained were featured at several meetings.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE augmented friendship

Terry Vilhola, exchange student from Finland, models a native costume.

Since 1951 Huntington High School has participated in the American Field Service program. The purpose of this organization is to bring about better relations between countries by becoming acquainted with each other's customs and beliefs. This year we were privileged to have Terry Vilhola of Finland with us. Terry won the friendship and admiration of the school and civic organizations which heard her tell of life and culture in her native country.

Miss Luther, Chairman of the American Field Service Committee, along with Dixie Michael, secretary, and Lynn Thompson, treasurer, served as Huntington High School's branch of the National Committee. Also included on the committee were representatives from the various service clubs and the presidents of the classes.

The Actuarie Club, which had twenty members this year, was sponsored by Miss Reynolds, the head librarian. They assisted in checking, sorting, and preparing books for use by the students.

The officers for the 1959-60 school year were Marlene Ross, president; Jackie Nye, vice-president; and Becky Bard, secretary-treasurer.

The highlights of the year consisted of a fall picnic with Sharon Spicklemier as hostess and a Christmas party with Pat Cook as hostess. The climax of the year was the annual reception for the mothers at the REMC building.

JOURNALISM scoops school news.

Huntington High School once again had a journalism class. Taught by Mrs. Young, the class numbered around a dozen students and met third period in Room 302. The class wrote and delivered the school paper, THE WHISPER, which was published once a month from December through May. The journalism staff sent articles to the HERALD-PRESS each Thursday noon, and the HERALD-PRESS published these articles in a special HHS News section each Friday.

Each member of the journalism class was given a specific job on the staff. Class members were given "beats" to cover for news. Marian Kaylor was Editor-in-Chief.

In May the class took a tour of Fort Wayne Newspapers, Inc., where members saw the highlights of running a big daily newspaper.

The journalism class would like to thank Mr. Carl and his printing class for their fine work in printing up the head and nameplate for THE WHISPER.

Station WVSH, "The Voice of the Schools of Huntington," is a 10-watt FM broadcasting station operated under the direction of the Audio-Visual Center. High school students serve as announcers and control room operators. The station has been broadcasting since January 1, 1950.

The WVSH Radio Center is one of the best equipped public school stations in the country, having two control rooms, two studios, a record and tape room, and a radio workshop classroom. It is entirely student-operated. Remote lines are connected from the studio to the band-choir room, the auditorium, and the Community Gym; and telephone connections are maintained to Krieghaum Field. The telephone exchange is used for out-of-town broadcasts.

AUDIO-VISUAL furnished helpful and efficient service.

The audio-visual department is under the direction of Mr. M. McCabe Day. The boys who served in the Center showed films for classes, operated the lights, produced sound effects, pulled curtains, and assisted backstage for all auditorium programs. This group of boys was also in charge of all broadcasts of school functions at Kriegbaum Field and the Community Gym.

At the end of each year awards are given on the basis of years of service. The boys received a minor letter for one year, a major letter for two years, a silver medal for three years, and a gold medal for four years.

The officers for 1959-60 were Jack Wilbur, president; John Ware, vice-president; Susie Harris, secretary; and Gwen Durflinger, treasurer. Mr. Wilbern served as sponsor.

FOREMEN guided underclassmen.

In Huntington High School's industrial arts department we have a system of choosing shop foremen. Senior boys are selected for this position by Mr. Burke to aid the shop teachers in the supervision of the other students. Along with the valuable experience gained, the boys also received extra credit for their services.

This year's wood shop foremen were James Bailey, Leroy Campbell, Ken Crawford, Dennis Dolby, James Reed, Jim Stonebraker, and Ron Whitesell; metal shop foremen were Leroy Campbell, Gary Keefer, Jim Schroeder, and Rodney Rondebush.

BIOLOGY CLUB had diversified activities.

On the regularly scheduled meetings held every third Thursday, speakers gave talks on blood types, trees, and the embryology of a chicken. The club was sponsored by Mr. Hummer and Mrs. Goshorn, and meetings were presided over by President Jeff Brown. David Allen was vice-president, Nancy Altman was secretary, and Ann Ware was treasurer.

The final event of the year was a two-day trip to Indianapolis. The first day was spent at the Science Fair at Butler Stadium. The second day the students visited a pet hospital and the "500" time trials.

Girls who earned 250 points were awarded an "H" and those who earned 350 points received a state plaque. These were awarded at the Family Banquet, which was held in the spring.

MODULUS STAFF completed tasks creditably.

This 1960 Modulus would not be in existence today without the diligent efforts of the Modulus staff. Co-editors Lynn Thompson and Barbara Day did a fine job of planning the program, directing the staff, and meeting the deadlines. Mrs. Young, our able advisor, helped us in many ways, including solving our various problems.

Many students who worked on the Modulus make up the staff. The staff was selected by the Modulus' out-going editor, the incoming editor, and the advisor, Mrs. Young. The choice of the staff was also based upon suggestions of other faculty members. The staff included co-editors Lynn Thompson and Barbara Day, copy editor Ann Ware, sports editor John Ware, picture editor Barbara Mueller, advertising manager Dick Lee, business manager Jane Shroyer, circulation manager Anne Goshorn, and section editor Marian Kaylor. The junior members of the staff were David Lewis, photographer; Ann Winegardner, assistant copy editor; Bill Houghton, assistant sports editor; Diane Roberts and Judy Stouder, picture editors; Bob Farrar, assistant advertising manager; Gwen Durflinger, assistant business manager; Diane Seashols, assistant subscription manager; and Darlene Foster, section editor. The others included Carol Kriegbaum, sophomore section editor; Anne Meier, freshman section editor; and Shari Mueller and Alan Miller, photographers.

SENIOR PLAY, "The Roaring Twenties", proclaimed memorable.

The Class of 1960 presented its senior class play, "The Roaring Twenties," on March 24 and 25, 1960. The entire action of the play, a hilarious comedy, takes place in the living room of the Dunning household. Mr. and Mrs. Dunning and their three young teenagers live in the suburbs of a large mid-Western city in the year of 1927. The parents must handle the problems of two visiting relatives in addition to those of their own family. Unusual situations develop which keep the audience highly amused.

Special coaching assistanee, given by Mrs. Bea Patterson, made the play more polished. The senior class sponsors, Miss Edith Hanson and Mr. Richard Goshorn, directed the play and helped to make it the success that it was.

BOOSTER CLUB sustained school spirit.

School spirit got the full treatment this year by the Booster Club. The able and never-tiring sponsor, Homer Carl, did a tremendous job in guiding and encouraging the program. The club had as its goal the encouragement of sports enthusiasm for the good of the entire school. Membership required loyalty and time, but much good came from the club this year under the following officers: Bill Gordon, president; Bill Houghton, vice-president; and Sara Wasmuth, secretary-treasurer.

"Let's go, you Vikes!" screamed the cheering block hoping for another basket. At every home game all 121 girls who made up the cheering block were found loyally supporting the Vikings at the Community Gymnasium. The cheerleaders, with the assistance of Miss Carolyn Reynolds, sponsor of the group, directed the girls. The block practiced every Wednesday after school. Everyone worked diligently on letter formations and new yells.

We believe that the cheering block gives the school a better school spirit and encourages the basketball players. Thank you, girls, for a job well done!

CHEERING BLOCK roared with frenzied excitement.

HOMECOMING celebration honored alumni.

On October 9, 1959, the Huntington High School Vikings met the Rochester Zebras on the famous battleground known as Kriegbaum Field. The Vikings flashed plenty of power in defeating the Zebras, 50 to 12. Jim Kaltemark got the Vikes off to a good start with a safety, accounting for a two-point lead. During the game Garl Wetters ran for two touchdowns, and quarterback Ken Tewel scored one TD, passed for another, and kicked six extra points. The Huntington squad ran away to a 43-point lead before Rochester scored. The Vikings made a fine show for the 2,000 Homecoming fans.

The traditional crowning ceremonies of the 1960 Homecoming Queen took place at Kriegbaum Field preceding the Rochester game. Chosen this year was Janet Burkhart. Her court included Susie Buzzard, Mary June Law, and Nancy Altman.

SECTIONAL TOURNEY brought victorious moments.

The Vikings made the Sectional Tournament pretty much a one-team show as they trounced Jefferson in the first game 74-33. Two nights later Huntington gained revenge on Andrews by beating the Cardinals 64-57; Lancaster was the next victim, 62-55. In the final game of the Sectional the Vikings crushed a bewildered Township team. After gaining a twenty-five point lead midway in the third quarter, the Vikings coasted in to a 71-57 victory, which was Huntington's peak.

In the Regional tournament at Marion, the Vikings made a terrific showing in the first half of the game against Bluffton, but in the second half Bluffton's superior height made the difference and the Tigers defeated the Vikings, 60-50. Bluffton went on to upset Kokomo, one of the best teams in the state, in the Semi-Final Tournament at Fort Wayne.

HALLOWEEN DANCE atmosphere was "heavenly."

The theme of the annual Halloween Dance at the Masonic Temple on October 31, 1959, was "Halloween Heaven."

The couples danced to the music of John Craig and his Melody Men. There was a ceiling of glittering, floating stars. The back-drop of the stage was covered with a Halloween moon, clouds, and the decoration theme. "Halloween Heaven." The walls were decorated with weird witches, spiders, bats, and masks bearing the names of each couple attending.

Sponsoring the dance was the M. M. S., under the supervision of Miss Alice Kline and Mrs. Lowell Buzzard. Nancy Altman was chairman and Patty Weaver, vice-chairman of the dance committee.

Dance committee chairmen and dates line up for recognition.

The dance was enjoyed by all—including the chaperones.

Hundreds of bats and stars hanging from the ceiling created the Halloween atmosphere.

Couples crowd the dance floor for the final dance.

The Sweetheart Dance provided a pleasont diversion for the many who attended.

Connie Hart, SSS president, and Harry Poulson, her escort, lead the procession of couples through the heart.

"A Kiss to Build a Dream On" was the theme chosen for the traditional Sweetheart Dance, held at the Masonic Temple on February 13, 1960. Many shades of red and pink mobile hearts, red lips, and kissing silhouettes dominated the scene. A huge heart centered by a kissing silhouette and placed upon a white cloud decorated the backdrop. Music was provided from nine to twelve o'clock by the Bobbi Davis Interludes. Connie Hart, Sunshine president, and Harry Poulson, her escort, led the grand march through a pink and white heart where the fate of each couple was determined by paper lips of red and white presented by little Miss Lisa Mowrer and Master Thomas Kneller.

The dance, a project of Money Making Society of Sunshine, was sponsored by Miss Alice Kline. MMS Chairman Nancy Altman and co-chairman Patty Weaver, Jackie Nye, Janet Burkhart, Judy Blackburn, Sara Wasmuth, Barbara Williams, and Monica Kneller helped make the dance a success.

The theme chosen for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was "Evening in Paris." The setting was a sidewalk cafe with colorful canopies, flower boxes, a miniature of the Eiffel Tower, and a bright display of pictures having a modern motif.

Jim Kaltenmark, junior class president, acted as toastmaster for the evening. John Thomas, junior class vice-president, welcomed the guests to the banquet, and Garl Wetters, senior class president, gave the response. The class prophecy was read by Darlene Foster and Judy Stouder.

Following the banquet, the couples enjoyed dancing to the music of Deb Tinkle and his band under the star-lit skies of Paris.

The post-prom party, held at the National Guard Armory, was from one to five A.M. Entertainment and food were provided by the citizens of the community.

Seated at the head table were Dave Lewis; John Thomas, president of the junior class; Jim Kaltenmark, Master of Ceremonies; and Garl Wetters, president of the senior class.

May 29, 1960

Student Body of Huntington High School
Dear Students:

Another school year has almost passed into history. We hope every Huntington High School student has contributed to this history in such a way that he can look back upon it with pride.

We are proud of the excellent achievement of our students. Many students have made commendable records this year. When students make excellent records, they bring honor to themselves and their community.

Our best wishes go with our seniors. They will be taking their place in society and we are sure they will be excellent representatives of the school and community.

Sincerely yours,

Harold S. Johnson

ADMINISTRATION ably determines school policy.

The School Board of the City of Huntington is composed of five members. They are appointed by the City Council for a term of three years. The appointments are made on a rotating basis so that at least two of the members have had some experience.

The Board establishes policies for the school system and provides the means of executing them. It also delegates the executive duties of the school system to the superintendent.

The School Board of 1960 consisted of Milton Marx, president; V. P. Caldwell, treasurer; Mrs. George Stocksdale, secretary; Max Wiley; and Mrs. Fred Pence.

Mr. Max Wiley, Mrs. George Stocksdale, Mr. V. B. Caldwell, Mrs. Fred Pence, Mr. Phil Eskew, and Mr. Milton Marx.

CAFETERIA

Our modern cafeteria with its excellent manager and cooks did a wonderful job in providing nourishing meals in a cheerful and peaceful atmosphere. This school lunch service center added a zestful note to the noontime break, and all groups or individuals using the cafeteria enjoyed it.

CUSTODIANS

For keeping our school neat and clean throughout the year, the credit went to our efficient custodians who worked very diligently. This year our custodians were Charles Alexander, Robert Pollock, Wilbur Rusher, Robert Swearer, and Charles Thompson.

CLASSES

Between our entrance into high school as frightened freshmen and our exit as superior seniors, we have many ups and downs, many joys and tears, all made more joyous or easier to bear by those we know best—our classmates.

SENIORS

The senior year was the busiest of the four for the Class of 1960. Somehow, sandwiched in between activities like the Senior Play and the year-end Beatnik Party, came the election of class officers: Garl Wetters, president; Mel Watrous, vice- president; Shirley VanDine, secretary; and Bill Gordon, treasurer. Adding materially to the enjoyment of all activities of the Class of 1960 were the class sponsors, Miss Edith Hanson and Mr. Richard Goshorn.

Seniors enjoy the informal atmosphere of the Beatnik Party.

Some of the senior girls participating in the annual SSS style show were Susie Buzzard, Anne Goshorn, Ann Ware, Marian Kaylor, Monica Kneller, and Barbara Williams.

JUNIORS

The junior class, which is the money-making class, had several projects, among which were candy selling and management of concession stands at football and basketball games. As a result of their endeavors the juniors earned enough money to buy a coke cooler and to finance the Junior-Senior Reception. The class sponsors, Mr. Ivan Wilhelm and Mr. Homer Carl, were always on hand to help.

The class officers were Jim Kaltenmark, president; John Thomas, vice-president; Diana Hammel, secretary; and Judy Casper, treasurer.

SOPHOMORES

When students entered the sophomore year, they had become more familiar with the school surroundings. They joined numerous upper class activities in scholarship, sports, and other fields.

Sophomore sponsor was Mr. Glen Hummer, and class officers were Dave Reeves, president; Dave Proffitt, vice-president; Penny Glass, secretary; and Ann Petrie, treasurer.

Hobart Schacht, Patty Altman, Van Bailey, Bill Goshorn, and Mrs. Juanita Young.

Now let's all join in on the second chorus, "M-I-C-K-E-Y R-A-T."

FRESHMEN

Some one hundred sixty little tots came to Huntington High with the same bewildered "I'm-new-here" look. Following the example of the upper-classmen the greenies held their class election to choose the officers who would lead them to their first year's destiny. They were as follows: Bill Goshorn, president; Van Bailey, vice-president; Patty Altman, secretary; and Hobart Schacht, treasurer. Guiding the officers was Mrs. Juanita Young, class sponsor.

Freshmen enjoy their first class party.

SENIORS are active participants in school activities, providing much of the leadership.
